

HILLSDALE COLLEGE FIRST ANNUAL CONSTITUTION DAY COLLOQUIUM

A LIVE WEBCAST SPONSORED BY THE
ALLAN P. KIRBY, JR. CENTER FOR CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES AND CITIZENSHIP

AGENDA

Thursday, September 16

---

- 9:00-10:30 a.m.                      Welcome and Opening Remarks
Larry P. Arnn, President, Hillsdale College
- “Free Markets, Regulation and the Constitution”
- Chair:             R.J. Pestritto, Hillsdale College
  Panelists:       Thomas G. West, University of Dallas
  Mark Hall, Wake Forest University Law School
  William Kristol, The Weekly Standard
- 10:45 a.m.-12:00 p.m.                “Howard Zinn and Civic Education”
- Chair:             Terrence Moore, Hillsdale College
  Panelists:       Colleen Sheehan, Villanova University
  Allen Guelzo, Gettysburg College
  Victor Davis Hanson, Hoover Institution
- 1:00-2:15 p.m.                        “Does Tea Party Constitutionalism Have a Future?”
Michael Barone, American Enterprise Institute
- 8:00 p.m.                                “Founding Father”
Richard Brookhiser, Author

Friday, September 17, 2010

---

- 9:00-10:30 a.m.                        Welcome and Opening Remarks
David J. Bobb, Hillsdale College
- “How to Interpret the Constitution: A Debate”
- Moderator:      Paul Moreno, Hillsdale College
  Debaters:       Stephen Markman, Michigan Supreme Court
  Sanford Levinson, University of Texas, Austin
- 10:45 a.m.-12:00 p.m.                “Civil Liberties and Islamic Terrorism: A Debate”
- Moderator:      Will Morrisey, Hillsdale College
  Debaters:       Bob Barr, Former U.S. Congressman
  John Yoo, University of California, Berkeley
- 1:00-2:00 p.m.                        “The Constitution and the 2010 Elections”
Charles Kesler, Claremont McKenna College
- 8:00 p.m.                                “Why We Celebrate Constitution Day”
George Will, The Washington Post